School Board Balloting Saturday

A new electrical sub station is nearing completion northeast of Canyon which will double the existing distribution capacity for the Canyon area by Southwestern Public Service. The sub station should be in operation in mid-July, according to Joe Gidden, SPS manager. (See story on page 10.)

Three Posts Open, Eight Contestants

Canyon School District voters will go to the polls Saturday and elect three school board members from a field of eight candidates.

Candidates were reluctant to talk about the issues but the very fact that eight candidates are seeking three spots on the board is testimony in itself that there are issues.

Two candidates, Pauline Hefley from South Amarillo and Ed Wieck from Umbarger both voiced the opinions that their particular areas are entitled to representation on the seven-person board.

There will be two polling places this year with polls opening at 7 o'clock in the morning and closing at 7 in the evening at both places.

At Gene Howe School Bill Harp will be election judge and Aubrey Crossland will preside over the election at Canyon Community Center Building.

The incumbents on the board are Jerry LaGrone, Joe Gill and Wesley Cox. All three have been on the board for three 3-year terms. Cox and Gill are farmers and LaGrone operates LaGrone Funeral Home.

Wieck is an Umbarger farmer and was a member of the Umbarger school board before its consolidation with Canyon school. Mrs. Hefley is active in PTA and community affairs in South Amarillo and is an insurance woman.

Other candidates are Douglas Rittenberry, Tom Keeling and Roscoe Richardson.

Rittenberry is a farmer and he and his wife, Sue, currently head the Band Parents organization. Keeling is a farmer, stockman and contractor and has been active in Booster Club. Roscoe Richardson is a businessman who operates Umbarger Farm Supply.

DOUGLAS RITTENBERRY: I filed because I'm interested in the welfare of our children. I don't have any ax to grind. Everybody that's running are friends of mine. If I'm elected I want to see that our school system is run in as conservative a manner as possible.

It looks to me like we can save some money in places. I'm not for cutting the salaries of teachers. I do think that the quality of teaching should be maintained at the salaries we are paying.

I think the school system ought to be run like a business and I think it ought to be run by the school board. I think school board members should study the agenda and not a penny of taxpayer money should be wasted.

PAULINE HEFLEY: I have a keen interest in the education system. I don't profess to have the answers to all problems. I do think that mature, intelligent people can sit down and communicate and solve problems.

I have a vested interest. I have children in school and I feel I might make some contribution.

I think it is vital that we

CHS Band Wins Sweepstakes

The Canyon High School Band won the sweepstakes trophy for Class AAA in University Interscholastic Competition held at the Amarillo Civic Center Tuesday.

The band received six I ratings from the judges in concert, sight reading and marching.

This is the second year in a row that the CHS Band has won sweepstakes at UIL competition.

Four schools compete in Class AAA.

The band played three concert numbers including one march of the director's choice and two that were selected from the prescribed list for 3-AAA competition in the UIL.

The Canyon High School Band won sweepstakes at the University Interscholastic League competition Tuesday. Here, director J. W. King, Jr., center, holds the new trophy. Stephen Rhodes, band president, and Jamie Martin, drum major, hold two other recent additions to the trophy case. One is for winning the UIL marching contest and the other is for winning sweepstakes at the Borger Band Festival.

Two Critical

Mishap Hurts Six

A Canyon girl and a Tulia man remain in critical condition in Northwest Texas Hospital following a two-car accident Sunday afternoon north of Umbarger.

Paula Read, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Read of Canyon and Mark W. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Miller of Tulia, are still hospitalized. Miller's 18-year-old wife Mary Lou, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Parks of Canyon, is in satisfactory condition at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Six persons were hospitalized after the crash which occurred on Highway 1062 and a county road intersection about a mile north of Umbarger.

Miss Read, a freshman at West Texas State University, was a passenger in the car driven by Miller. Other occupants of that car were Mrs. Miller, Frederic Knipe, 20, WT student from Colorado Springs, Colo., and Randy Chris Stephens, 20, of Tulia.

Keith Leon Rickwartz, 19-year-old freshman at WT from Dumas, was alone in the second car. Rickwartz is living near Umbarger while attending school.

Knipe, Stephens and Rickwartz were rushed to Neblett

Ladies Chamber Slates Clean-up

BY CAROL CRAIN

"We should all start at home," Mrs. G. L. Davis stated Tuesday evening at the meeting of the beautification committee of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

She then pointed out that other areas would need a massive clean-up campaign which will involve vacant lots and other Canyon property.

City maps dividing up the town have already been distributed and members of the Women's Division are making note of the areas having junk cars, old refrigerators, stoves, and other litter in need of clean-up.

Two city ordinances were cited in the case of abandoned refrigerators. They read:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to leave outside of any building or dwelling in a place accessible to children any abandoned, unattended or discarded icebox, refrigerator or any container of any kind which has an airtight door or lock which may not be released for opening from the inside of the box, refrigerator or container."

The same applies to those having "an airtight snap lock or other device thereon without first removing the snap lock or doors from the icebox, refrigerator, or container."

It was noted that back areas of alleys near businesses and homes were badly in need of clean-up.

Areas with an accumulation of winter's dead leaves, tree limbs, and litter will be sectioned off on paper and civic clubs, scouts, and WTSU organizations will be asked to clean a certain area.

The effort will be held during the Canyon Beautification Week, 1971 which is scheduled April 19-24.

Lot owners will be encouraged to remove large unsightly items from their property.

The beautification committee will recommend that citi-

Light Vote For City Is Expected

Voting is expected to be light in the uncontested city election next Tuesday.

Polls will open at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Community Center Building and will close at 7 p.m. Election judge is Mrs. Dewey Foster.

Felix Pierce and Dr. Willis Harrison, both incumbents, are standing for election. Pierce is up for re-elction and Dr. Harrison was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Kenneth Olsen.

Lanehart Here All Day Friday

Charles Lanehart, district representative for U.S. Congressman Bob Price, will be in Canyon all day Friday.

In a news letter to Randall County residents, Price noted that Lanehart will be in the Randall County Commissioners Courtroom from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. He will be available to "assist local residents with any problems they might have with the Federal Government."

Lawyer To Explain

Fair Credit Act

"Every person who has a business or employs two or more employees has a need for the understanding of this Fair Credit Reporting Act," said Bob Lindsey, owner-manager of the Credit Bureau of Canyon, Inc., 1400 4th Ave.

Lindsey has arranged to have the new law reviewed Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Canyon Community Center. The act becomes effective April 25.

Attorney Rhett Plank is to explain the law, following a reading of it.

The new federal legislation is intended for the protection of the consumer, Lindsey said. It limits the credit bureau to giving a merchant the facts he needs to decide whether or not to give a person credit. Other information which may be in an individual's file is not to be offered.

Lindsey says that his office has tried to practice this rule ever since taking over the credit bureau in June of 1970.

"All we want to know is how they pay their bills," said Lindsey. "If they've got good credit, there'll be nothing derogatory on their reports." He stressed the point that the bureau is not interested in personal information.

The bureau can run investigative reports for use by insurance companies or employers, he said, but these reports would not be available for those who only need credit information.

"We try to make sure there is a need for the information and that the information is accurately reported," said Lindsey. "And we give out only the information they ask for specifically."

The act was written by the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, Inc., who had determined that consumers need protection concerning the information compiled about them, said Lindsey.

In the past, there was no legal restriction against showing a bureau's complete file on a person to anyone who was a member of the bureau.

A consumer who has had credit refused will now have the right to ask the credit grantor a reason. The grantor must supply the name of the credit bureau or individual from whom dero-

Astronaut To Be Banquet Speaker

Astronaut Thomas P. Stafford will be featured speaker at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society banquet April 30 in the East Dining Hall on the West Texas State University campus.

Col. Stafford, born in Weatherford, Oklahoma, commanded the Apollo 10 flight that passed near the moon's surface, and flew in the Gemini 6 space flight.

He presently is chief astronaut for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and is director of the Science Systems and Technology Ltd.

The Historical Society will celebrate its 50th birthday April 30 with an executive meeting at 11 a.m. at the museum, a membership meeting for its 800 members at 2 p.m. and the banquet at 8 p.m.

County Folks Pay IRS $23 Millions

Taxes are again in the spotlight in Randall County, what with the day of reckoning, April 15th, just around the corner.

Uncle Sam will be present that day, hand extended, to receive all offerings in the form of personal income taxes based upon 1970 earnings.

The big question in each taxpayer's mind, as he struggles with the various forms and schedules he must fill out, is how big the bite will be this time.

Last year, approximately $23,270,000 in personal income taxes left the local area, bound for Washington.

This time, based upon Government estimates, the overall amount is expected to be somewhat less. This is so due to the favorable factor of a smaller surtax, 2½ percent, and despite the fact that many people earned more money in 1970 than in the previous year. The reason is that there were many more people than usual who were unemployed.

As a result, the Government expects to collect $88.3 billion in personal taxes, or

PAULINE HEFLEY

by Troy Martin
FROM THE CANYON RIM

The United States Army completed its Dreyfus case this week and First Lt. William Calley, Jr., was offered up as a scapegoat for all our sins in Vietnam.

Not since Alfred Dreyfus was tried by a French court martial at Rennes has a military court's findings been so fraught with political implication.

The House and Senate reverberated with speeches and protest flared across the country. In Athens, Georgia, the draft board resigned as a body.

Lt. Calley was tried by a conventional court martial and had he been engaged in conventional war at My Lai the verdict might have been just and reasonable.

But Lt. Calley was not engaged in conventional war in Vietnam. Even the impersonal war of the 1940's was at least flavored with some chivalry.

The enemy wore uniforms and friend and foe were easily discernable. Not until the Germans were desperate did they resort to the dishonorable tactic of infiltrating allied lines with Nazi soldiers wearing British, French and American uniforms.

Even then old soldiers Runstedt and Rommel found such strategy distasteful.

On Guadalcanal neither side had facilities for handling prisoners. There was no quarter. Both the Japanese and Americans realized this and did what they had to do with little rancor.

It was in Korea that the American soldier was sent into a new kind of combat. He fought a shadow enemy without uniform.

A 5-year-old kid approaching an Army truck might be wanting a stick of gum or he might be bent on tossing a hand grenade into a truck load of GI's.

Not only this but there was no hope for victory. Our best weapons were forbidden our combat troops and the enemy was given sanctuary from which to strike telling blows at our men in the field.

For the first time the American soldier learned to hate, to hate deep in his guts — frustrated deadly rage.

Victory, the very fruit of battle, has been denied our troops by political logic so inept that I do not see how soldiers in the field have retained any respect at all for our civil government.

Vietnam is cut from the same cloth as Korea. Again we entered a war in a far away country fighting apparitions instead of enemy soldiers, forced to fight women, children and old men because women, children and old men throw hand grenades and set booby traps.

We have managed to set even our allies against us because we insist on pulling our punches, tearing up the friendly countryside while refusing to let the South Vietnamese invade the north to give them a taste of their own medicine.

Into this irrational, illogical, and deadly situation we sent First Lt. William Calley, Jr. We had taught him that he would not be able to tell friend from foe and that every Vietnamese was a potential enemy.

We sent him into My Lai, Charlie country, and charged him with strict responsibility for the welfare of his troops. In the days preceding My Lai he took heavy booby trap casualties.

Ask any combat soldier, five booby trap casualties is more demoralizing to an outfit than a three-hour cannonade.

It is inconceivable to me that My Lai could have been premeditated.

The defense of Lt. Calley should have entered a plea of innocence by reason of temporary insanity. He and all his men must have been irrational by the time they threaded their way through booby traps to My Lai.

Aren't we all a little insane? I mean the American people who allow their political leaders to drag out for 10 years — with no end in sight — a war our military men told us we could have won in 90 days in 1965.

The ghost of Nuremberg stalks the Calley case and how it must discomfort the repose of Lyndon Johnson as he tosses and turns in his ranch house bedroom on the Pedernales.

In the trial of Japanese General Tomoyuki Yamashita in 1945 by a military tribunal precedent was firmly established that responsibility for war crimes reflects to the highest echelon of command.

With Major General R.B. Reynolds presiding flanked by four other generals, the tribunal found Yamashita guilty of the rape of Manila although Yamashita was 100 miles away at the time and the Manila atrocities were perpetrated by sailors rather than soldiers under Yamashita's command.

The US Supreme Court reviewed the case. Giving judgment Chief Justice Stone had this to say:

"A commanding general must be held responsible for his troops. . ."

Dissenting opinion by Justice Murphy accurately predicted the future:

"No one in position of command in any army from sergeant to general can escape these implications. Indeed the fate of such future President of the United States and his Chiefs of Staff and military advisers may well have been sealed by this decision."

President Harry Truman refused an appeal for clemency. Yamashita was hanged for war crimes committed by Japanese troops.

The implication is clear. By precedent laid down by our own people, military and civil, and upheld by the President himself, if Lt. William Calley, Jr., is culpable for what happened at My Lai then so is Lyndon Johnson.

Also the stark fact remains that if politicians had left the war in Vietnam to the military, Lt. Calley wouldn't have been at My Lai. The war would have been over three years before the tragedy took place.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

All children, according to Diderot, the French philosopher whose thinking was considerably ahead of his time, are essentially criminal. "It is our good fortune that their physical powers are too limited to permit them to carry out their destructive desires."

A little child wants what he wants when he wants it, and he seldom cares who gets hurt in the process.

If Diderot were alive today, he would probably add that all childish minds are dangerous — particularly when they are housed in adult bodies. Adult strength and mature intellects enable them to put their emotional immaturities disastrously into effect.

Ten years ago a 15-year-old boy allegedly confessed to the slaying of a 53-year-old church secretary. A jury acquitted him because, reportedly, they could not believe a 15-year-old could have committed such a vicious, brutal murder. (The authorities, however, did not look for another killer.)

Some eight years later the same man was charged with robbing a young woman; 23 days later he was charged with rape. A jury in 47th District Court took 4 minutes to convict him of the robbery charge. (He was, as usual, soon out on bond pending appeal.) The rape charge was dropped.

Almost a year later he was identified as the armed robber who attacked a young woman on a church parking lot. He had also been questioned in the mysterious murder of a barmaid, and he was reportedly wanted for questioning in the bizarre murders of several other young women. As police were closing in on him, he shot himself to death.

But all this happened in Texas, and isn't Texas notoriously wild and violent? Could this be common in America?

Authorities report that charges are filed with the police in only about half of the some 9 million felonies committed every year in the U.S. Only 12% of the criminals are apprehended; only 6% of them are convicted, and only 1.5% ever go to jail.

Did we really need a Presidential commission to spend 3½ years investigating the reasons that crime is increasing 12 times faster than the population? Is it not common for any profitable business to expand?

Statistics predict one out of every 50 Americans will be the victim of a felony this year. So the innocent man on the street is in more danger from the felons than the felons are from the law.

There has been much dissatisfaction expressed with the recommendations of the Presidential commission that the courts be even more lenient with the criminals as a means of curtailing rising crime. They want the death penalty officially abolished. (It has already been abolished for all practical purposes.) They also suggest that Congress reconsider last year's vote and outlaw hand guns.

Inasmuch as there is no way to keep guns away from outlaws, this would simply deprive law-abiding citizens of the means of protecting themselves. And since the law no longer protects us from criminals, would this be wise?

For children's own safety and that of the home, parents have traditionally restrained childish destructiveness. It is this restraint that guides the young mind to maturity. The permissive atmosphere of the homes of the last two generations, added to the permissiveness of the schools and courts has left society at the mercy of an army of immature minds.

What is to restrain the "child" who has no respect for parents, no faith in God, and no fear of the law? No organization can exist without rules, and rules are useless unless they are enforced.

Certainly every Christian should do his best to lead all men to trust and obey God, the only real solution for our problems. But until this preventive measure is put into effect, if the courts do not restrain these dangerous "children," they may destroy us all. Many of these pathetic figures do execute themselves, but unfortunately they frequently "execute" someone else first.

Baseball Team Splits Two Games

West Texas State's baseball team split a two-game series with defending Missouri Valley Conference champion Tulsa earlier this week.

Tulsa defeated the Buffaloes, 14-9, Monday at Buffalo Field, but the hosts rebounded for a 12-8 decision over Tulsa Tuesday afternoon.

Kenny Ground pitched the entire game against Tulsa Tuesday and contributed four hits. Catcher Hal Martin and Kim Henderson had home runs for the Buffs in the victory.

News Brief

A High School Visitation Day will be held on the West Texas State University campus April 24.

The event will be hosted by the Military Science department at WTSU. Lieutenant Colonel John O. Childs, professor of Military Science, made the announcement.

Ticket Sales Racing Top Speed

Over half of the 1970 football season ticket holders have requested seats for the 1971 campaign.

Wayne Ray, athletic business manager, announced Tuesday his office had received requests for 1,239 seats for the 1971 home schedule, which will include six opponents. There were 2,382 season tickets sold last year.

The Buffaloes, under new coach Gene Mayfield, will compete for the Missouri Valley Conference championship for the first time in the fall of 1971.

MVC foes played at home will be Tulsa, Oct. 2; and Drake, Nov. 20.

Other home games are set Sept. 18 against Lamar Tech, Oct. 9 against the University of Texas at Arlington, Oct. 16 against Northern Illinois and Oct. 23 against Idaho. The Idaho clash has been set as the homecoming game.

Away games for the Buffs in MVC play are Memphis State, Wichita State and New Mexico State. The New Mexico State Aggies have been taken into the conference, but will not play for the conference title next fall. That game has been named by conference officials as a league clash for the Buffs.

Boosters Collect For Fete

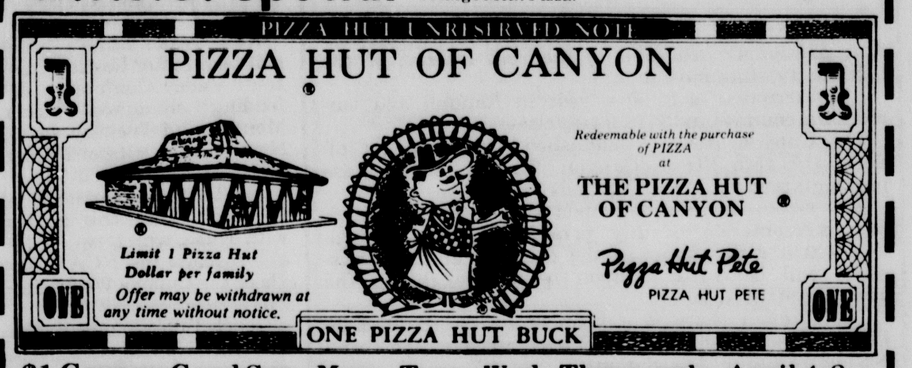

Nearly $150 was collected last week at the faculty basketball game at Canyon High School sponsored by the Eagle Booster Club.

The money will be used toward the annual athletic banquet and to help pay for a weight machine purchased last year.

"We want to thank the teachers for their time and effort in playing the game," said Col. John Childs, presient of the club, "And we appreciate all the people who came to the sell-out game in supporting the Booster Club."

Happy Home Environment WHAT'S THE IDEAL?

■ Most people would agree that the ideal happy home environment must take into consideration the environmental aspects as well as the spiritual and human relationships.

■ In the present state of technology, electricity does its job well when it comes to environmental aspects of conditioning the air in your home.

■ The ideal system, now available, not only does its job of comfort heating in winter and comfort cooling in summer but also refines the air itself. Electric humidifiers control the amount of moisture in the air and electrostatic air cleaners remove undesirable dust particles.

■ So then, 4 things to give you a happier home environment . . . electric heating, electric cooling, electric humidification and electric air cleaning . . . and all of it automatically. Ask your Public Service manager for complete information.

Umbarger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

Anticipating next year, the students from Umbarger school are visiting Rex Reeves Elementary today. They were scheduled to leave at 8:15 a.m., visit in the classrooms by pairs and share an assembly and hamburger lunch with their new schoolmates. Mrs. A.B. Holt and other school officials have made the arrangements for the day.

Two weeks ago, the 3-6th grades were taken on a field trip by Don Dolle of the Soil Conservation Service. They were shown methods of conservation that are practiced by farmers. In addition, they learned varieties of grasses and native flowers. Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers, 3rd and 4th grade teacher, said that the children are now collecting grasses, flowers, bugs and birds that are specific to this area. They are also examining soil samples under the microscope.

Seven six-year-olds joined their families in the reception of Holy Communion for the first time last Sunday in St. Mary's Catholic Church. Dressed in white dresses and suits, the children participated in the Offertory procession and sang a song at Communion which they had written in their religion class. After the service, the children, their families and friends and pastor, Monsignor Matthew P. Schafle, shared a light breakfast in the hall. The youngsters included Wanda Artho, Greg Adams, Julie Dolle, Lori Fishbacher, Frank Frische, Gaylan Hartman and RoxAnne Skarke.

Don't forget that Saturday is voting day for the school board with polling places at the Community Center in Canyon and Gene Howe Elementary School. The task of being a school board member is a thankless one which involves many hours. Remuneration is certainly not monetary, but instead the payment is satisfaction in knowing that as a school board member, a person can help mold the present and the future of the Canyon community. It is an important job. Choose the candidate who you think will serve best and support him before and after the election.

Lately, whenever anyone uses the telephone of the Gypsy exchange, the time before the buzzer and cutoff seems very short. I checked the time in a conversation early in the week which was four minutes. I telephoned the office in Tulia to see if the time limit had been changed. The repair man said no complaints had been registered. If your limit seems short, please call the telephone office. I hate to admit that I am talking more.

Indian History Told To Cubs

Cowboys and Indians was the theme for the monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 31 at First United Methodist Church Friday evening.

The three dens saw a program by Ben Prichard, Todd Clodfelter, and Glenn Harrison, Post 80 advisor. The topic was "The History of the American Indian."

Dr. Derl Brooks, head of ticket sales for Scout-o-Rama, passed out tickets to each Scout. The event will take place April 23-25 in Amarillo.

Miller Begins Landscaping At Junior High

Corley expects to have the bed planted within a few weeks.

Windows Shot At Britain's Studio

Approximately $200 damage was done sometime Sunday to Britain's Studio, 1400 Fifth Avenue, when vandals shot holes in three plate glass windows with B-B shots.

Pat Britain, owner, said this was the first time vandals have done damage to his property except on Halloween several years ago when someone threw a brick through his window.

Toni Dickinson, head song girl at UCLA, is currently on the West Texas State University campus conducting tryouts for WT song girls. Six WT coeds will do pom pom routines to Buffalo Band music during football and basketball season.

Song Girl Holds WT Tryouts

Toni Dickinson, head song girl at the University of California at Los Angeles, is currently on the WTSU campus teaching pom pom routines to twenty coeds.

Miss Dickinson will conduct tryouts and help a panel of university judges select the best six girls for 1971-72 WT song girls. The girls will be judged on appearance, their enthusiasm, and ability to keep time to the music.

Those selected by the judges will perform various routines at football and basketball games while the Buffalo Band plays.

"We'll work on kicks, pom pom steps, and keeping the arm straight," she stated.

Miss Dickinson came to the university campus directly from the Houston Astrodome wher the song girls performed Saturday and the UCLA basketball team won first place in the NCAA tournament.

In Houston, the UCLA song girls wore gold and blue hot pants with matching popcorn tops and knee high brown boots. The solid costumes were alternated in the formations.

"The crowd went wild," Toni recalled. "It was kind of embarrassing."

Over 300 UCLA fans made the trip from the coast, including the varsity basketball band which stopped in Canyon en route.

During the regular season the UCLA song girls wear one of two costumes in the university's blue and gold colors.

"We do twenty different routines," the song girl from Fresno, California, stated. "Some are regular pom pom routines and others are jazz and dance routines."

"I like them all; they're all fun to do," she said enthusiastically.

"In California, there are song girls in junior high, high school and college. There are song girl camps held during the summer and state-wide competitions."

Miss Dickinson was a member of the high school state championship team before attending UCLA. She has been a song girl for the past six years.

"We do routines to the school fight songs, popular songs like 'Raindrops', and others," she noted.

"I was drawing up some of the formations Monday night. We begin the routines from a straight line, a V, triangles, and diagonals," she noted.

The coeds trying out for song girl spots will do routines originated by Miss Dickinson. Music for the tryouts was taped by the Buffalo Band. The music department will video tape the WT tryouts and practice sessions for use after Miss Dickinson returns to UCLA.

After the top six are selected, Miss Dickenson "will teach them as many routines as I can before I leave Saturday," the Theta said.

The 1971-72 song girls will select their costumes and learn to make pom poms before Miss Dickinson returns to California.

Medical knowledge, diagnostic techniques, and positive acting drugs have been greatly improved. Now many people are young at seventy and hope to stay that way. To a great degree, how long you will live depends on you regularly having your physician check your body. By treating any ailment before it has time to become a serious problem, you can add many years to your life.

West Texas State University Cancels Rock Festival

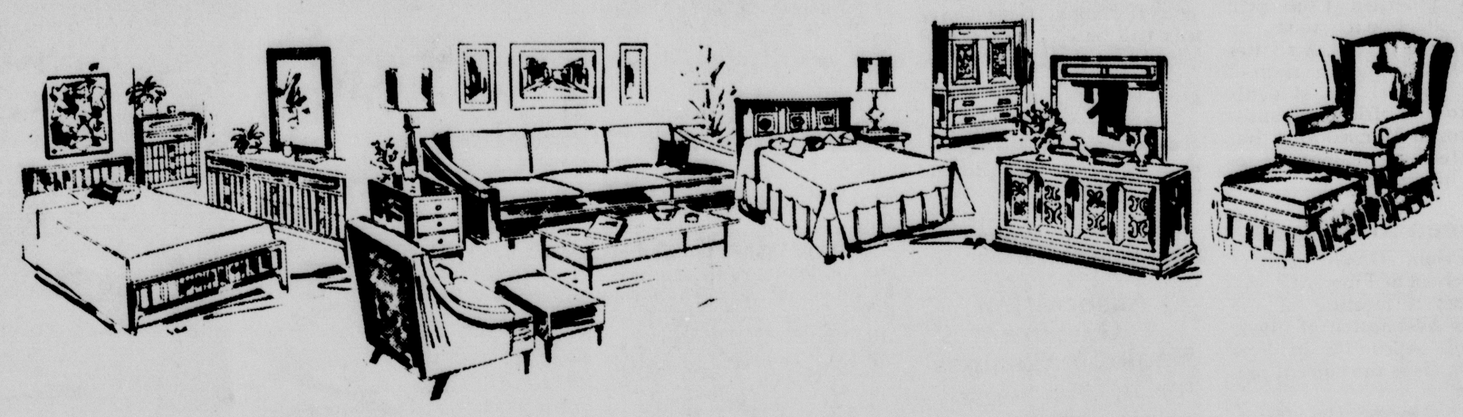

The Rock Festival scheduled on the West Texas State University campus April 24 was cancelled Monday at a meeting of the Inter-Residence Hall Council, which was sponsoring the event.

Brian Parker, WT senior and spokesman for the campus organization, listed three reasons for the cancellation.

"There was not enough interest among the students, not enough bands available for the festival, and not enough time left to get the bands or plan the festival."

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, Dean of Student Life at WTSU was not available for comment.

gatory information was received, and the consumer is then entitled to make an appointment to check on the accuracy of the reporter's information and to see that any errors in it are corrected. He also has the right to place an explanation or correction in the bureau's file.

Lindsey said that a firm could be a reporting agency, as defined by this act, without even knowing it. One merchant who passes along hearsay information from another is considered to be such an agency.

People have had trouble in the past because investigative reports containing wrong information have been filed. The agency which launches an investigation for a comprehensive report will now have to inform the subject of their action in writing, said Lindsey. The subject can check the file himself, said the manager. "Just come to the office."

Since taking over the bureau, Lindsey says he has not been asked to make such a report.

The law will also limit a consumer's liability for a lost credit card to $50. Previous legislation forbids businesses to send credit cards to anyone who has not applied for them.

A further feature of the new act protects the consumer from gossip by agency employees who might have access to his file. A person who gives information to someone not authorized to receive it will be subject to a fine of up to $5,000 or imprisonment up to one year, or both.

"We are looking at the law in its strictest form until some cases have been tried and some precedents set in court," said Lindsey.

Derogatory information cannot be given out after seven years, under the new statute, said Lindsey, and bankruptcies are not to be reported after 14 years.

have someone represent our end of the school district. It is a grave responsibility and something I would not take lightly.

ED WIECK: I don't know if there necessarily has to be issues in this election.

Our school is a business. Canyon School System is possibly one of the biggest in town. I figure it ought to be run on a business like basis.

The main reason I ran is because I want to be assured it really is run on a business-like and economical basis.

I also feel that we (Umbarger) should have some representation from our area on the board.

TOM KEELING: I think we have a good school system with good facilities. I think we should be proud of it and should work to keep it that way.

We need to work to keep as good or better system in the most conservative manner.

I announced for school board because I feel like I have an obligation to the community if I can be of service.

I intend to serve with integrity to the best of my ability if I am elected.

JERRY LAGRONE: I see no particular issues. I am on the Texas Association of School Boards executive board and I am pretty well familiar with schools and school boards across the state.

I think that for curriculum and faculty according to our size we are second to none in the state.

We've gotten national recognition on our curriculum and our curriculum is only as good as the people you've got teaching and administering it. I think we have the best.

We have many things of which to be proud.

In the nine years I've been on the board we've doubled the size of Rex Reeves, enlarged the high school twice, built Gene Howe and also have built a new junior high school.

I still have three children in school and I am vitally concerned about education.

WESLEY COX: I think the school is progressing at a good rate, academically, physically and in our extra-curricular programs. We do have a few problems but nothing that cannot be corrected.

I think we need a vocational mechanics department to teach our children about automobiles and motors. This vocational course would take in children who may not want to continue to college. We are taking good care of children who are going to seek further education after high school, but we need to improve our program for those who do not wish for higher education.

We are fighting for the best possible education that we can afford.

JOE GILL: I am only interested in good schools, and I believe that's the only reason anyone should be on the school board. We have seen a lot of building during my three terms on the board. We have added to the high school, we've built Gene Howe elementary, we have added to Rex Reeves Elementary and we have the new junior high school building.

I am working and hoping for continued improvement, and I think there can be improvement in anything.

ROSCOE RICHARDSON: I do not believe there are any specific issues in this election, I just became interested in the school board by talking to people about the whole school situation.

I do believe that any money or tax programs can be improved through efficiency in operation.

School board is a big responsibility, and probably the biggest responsibility in the county.

I am primarily interested in sports and sports program in our school system. I think we have a good sports program and I believe it can be more efficient. This is not an issue, but it is an area I could get interested in.

Children learn basics in learning in our schools and part of that education is gained from sports.

I do not understand the athletic director position. It may be fine, I just don't understand it.

I have an overall interest in our system, but each person on the board will have different individual interests, which will mean a well-rounded program.

$1.9 billion less than last April.

Randall County's share of the tax load was determined by an unofficial breakdown of the payments received from the State of Texas as a whole, which totaled $4,475,000,000.

Local residents contributed close to 0.52 percent of that amount or about $23,270,000.

This year, in line with the changed economics situation and with the revised figures contained in the budget that was recently submitted to Congress, the personal tax returns from the local area will be around $22,712,000, it is estimated.

Large as this amount is, it may be the smallest sum they will be called upon to pay, on an annual basis for some time to come.

The expectations for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1971, run considerable higher. The budget counts on personal income taxes reaching $93.7 billion, which is $5.4 billion more than at present.

For Randall County residents to be able to carry their current share of that tax load and, at the same time, maintain their present standard of living, their 1971 incomes will have to be about 6.1 percent higher than they were in 1970.

Mishap. . .

Hospital in Canyon by LaGrone ambulances and were dismissed early this week.

Texas Department of Public Safety patrolman Don Howard of Vega said the Rickwartz 1964 vehicle was traveling north on the unnumbered county road and the Miller 1969 car was going west on FM 1062. Howard said there is a stop sign on the county road.

The right front of the Rickwartz car hit the left front of the Miller car, and the force of the impact threw the cars together again along their sides. Neither car overturned. The accident occurred around 4 p.m.

Miss Read, a 1970 graduate of Canyon High School, was active in Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America, Girls Choir and on the staff of the CHS annual while in high school.

Mrs. Miller, also a 1970 graduate of CHS, was a member of the FHA, FTA, Spanish Club, drama club, National Honor Society, mixed choir, and Future Business Leaders of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married last Dec. 19 in Canyon.

West Texas State's Kenny Ground (19) slid into first base safe Tuesday at Buffalo field. Ground pitched and batted West Texas past Tulsa, 12-8. He pitched the entire game and added four base hits. Tulsa had beaten the Buffs Monday, 14-9.

State-Wide Quarantine Placed On Texas Swine

The Texas Animal Health Commission has ordered a state-wide quarantine on the movement or sale for movement of all hogs except for purposes of slaughter, according to County Agent John Brazzil. This quarantine shall be effective March 29, 1971 and shall continue in force for sixty days, he reported.

The quarantine was placed to help eradicate hog cholera from Texas. Similar action has been taken in other states that are now free of cholera.

The following points, though not covering every detail of the quarantine order, should be carefully considered, Brazzil said.

1. Hogs for slaughter can move to packing house or slaughter market without a permit.

2. Hogs going to a show can move if they are inspected on the farm by a representative of the Animal Health Commission and a movement permit accompanies the hogs.

3. Special feeder and breeder sales permits will be handled from the Austin headquarters of Dr. H.Q. Sibley, acting director, Texas Animal Health Commission.

4. Hogs may move from one farm to another with no diversion en route if they are inspected and are accompanied by a permit to move.

No known cases of cholera have been reported recently in the Panhandle area, according to Brazzil. The quarantine covers all Texas counties.

Reports on sections of town also showed that there were streets with broken street markers and others without any marker at all. Improved street markings will be recommended by the committee at the upcoming Chamber meeting.

Another recommendation will deal with cleaning areas near the highway which may be seen on the approach to the city. This may include a large tree planting campaign.

The city park and surrounding area will be cleaned and the committee will recommend to the Chamber that a pedestal water fountain with cement skirt be installed equi-distant from the children's playground and Little League ballpark.

Discussion of the recommendations will be held at the regular meeting of the Women's Chamber April 13 at 7:00 p.m. At that time a salad supper for Chamber members and their guests will be held in the Canyon Community Center.

Beautification committee members present at the Tuesday night meeting included Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Virginia Cotton, Mrs. Eddie Knowles, Mrs. Scott M. Downing, Mrs. Phillip Brown, and Mrs. Claiborn Crain.

Mayfield Eyes WT Chargers

Coach Gene Mayfield and his staff of coaches met the 82 football candidates for positions on the West Texas State University team Tuesday afternoon.

"My first reaction to the opening day is one of pleasure in the fact each of the players seemed to be trying to please us with effort," said Mayfield.

"We are concerned about the lack of quickness of many players. Some of that can be improved with a loss of weight."

The new WTSU coach said his team won't go through their first scrimmages session Friday.

"With Tuesday being the team's first introduction to football this spring, we won't be ready for a scrimmage by Friday," he said. "We may have a control-type of scrimmage that afternoon."

The Buffaloes take a week break for Easter following Friday's practice session, returning to work April 13.

Junior FHA Plans Week Of Events

Future Homemakers of America at Canyon Junior High School will plant a rose bush, hold a tea, and sponsor a Teacher Appreciation Day and an Administration Appreciation Day this week during National FHA Week.

Becky Blewett, president of the junior high chapter, said the membership would select an outstanding teacher and present him or her with a flower and a homemade cake Wednesday. Thursday the girls will make themselves available to the administration for extra errands, and Friday the eighth grade girls will be honored at a tea at 3:30 p.m.

Miss Blewett also said the girls are especially proud of the new school building and "our teachers at school."

The 22 members of the chapter will participate in the week-long activities planned during the week.

Charlotte Loving of Dumas posed for this beauty shopping picture on the stairway of Shirley Hall. Charlotte is a member of Kappa Pi, AWS and is a pledge of Chi Omega. She is 18 years old.

C-C Maxi-Sale Successful

Canyon Chamber of Commerce Maxi-Garage Sale Saturday was a huge success by all standards, according to Chamber members.

Nearly $550 was collected by the chamber alone as their part of the sale. This figure does not include monies made by individuals who sold their own goods and paid the chamber only 20 per cent of their profit.

Roland Black, chamber manager, said clothes were about the slowest moving objects, but the hundreds of people swarmed through the old Bellah Building and picked the miscellaneous items right off the floor.

"We had between 500 and 600 people there, and some of the items were grabbed the minute we marked a price on them," Black said.

The money collected by the chamber will be used in the Christmas Lighting Fund. This brings the total in that fund to around $1200.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE M. HEFLEY

Congratulations to Mrs. John "Marcelln" Hayden on Mack Road who is now back "doing her thing" at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

It seems as though some two or three months ago Mrs. Hayden had fractured a bone in her right leg and was unaware of it. When she finally went to the doctor she learned of the fracture and she was sporting a cast for three and one-half weeks. I'm sure she now weighs considerably less without benefit of the cast and is able to mobile around much easier — glad you're better, Mrs. Hayden.

A Happy 16th Birthday to Donald Wayne Pace and a Happy 17th to Tommy Cook at the High Plains campus on Chapman Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Bev Dampf on Beacon Road and Mrs. Bill "Maurine" Holmes made a trip to Fort Worth and Dallas Friday last to enter their collie dogs in dog shows. They were houseguests of Mrs. Holmes's daughter and son-in-law, the Steve Wilsons, who live in Irving. They returned to our fair city on Sunday and brought with them some first place and reserve awards.

A special "Hello" to Lancelot Link from Matahari?? The Winton Campbells on Lamount had the pleasure of Winton's sister and her husband, the J. C. Smiths, from Moore, Oklahoma, as houseguests over last weekend.

A whole bunch of our Gene Howe kiddies attended a "Play Day" at the West Texas State University in Canyon this Saturday last. This happening took place at the Activities Center on the campus and a few of the chiluns I saw were Suzan Burkart, Pat Keith, Vicki Forehand, Linda Ford, Jean Cannon, Tina Broadbent, Terresa Tucker, Carl Hicks, Kim Radney and Alexis Hefely. Fun and games were had by all.

Mrs. Frank 'Billie' Hanson on Euclid made a trip to Austin last week end to sit for her final test to be a licensed vocational nurse.

News is brief this week, however, there should be plenty to report next week — what with the Canyon schools being out and many of you taking trips — so get on the horn and give me a call and let me know what you've been doing — 376-9853 or 352-2089. Now Mrs. Benny "Elfa" Turner on Mack had a capital idea — just put a li'l note pad by your tele and when someone's sick or you have some happening that you want to share with all the other bodies in the area — just make a note and then call it in to me by Tuesday. Just to show you I'm trying to get along — believe I'll put a note pad by my tele too.

Guess I'll sign off for now. One of my friends told me I might not be the greatest, but I'm so far ahead of what's in second place, it's pitiful. pmh.

Furniture Store Opens Here Today

Formal opening of The Furniture Galleries of Canyon is being held today through Saturday.

The new business is being operated by Mrs. Lois Rice and is located on the east side of the square, next door to Thompson's.

Mrs. Rice, who grew up in Plainview, has been in the furniture business for 20 years — 18 in retail and 2 in wholesale.

Mrs. Rice says she is qualified to assist in home decoration.

"I am looking forward to meeting everyone," said Mrs. Rice. "We will be carrying all styles of furniture, completely accessorized to complement any style of home decor."

SWPC Builds New Station

Canyon's electrical potential will double this summer when work on a new 115,000 volt transmission line substation is completed.

The substation, northeast of the city, will allow for growth in electrical service in any part of the Canyon district, with primary attention to West Texas State University.

Joe Gidden, manager of SPS in Canyon said if the sub-station in the west section of Canyon has problems, the new sub-station can provide service to all parts of the district with a minimum of interruption in service.

"Either station could handle the present load by itself," Gidden explained.

He also noted that the distribution lines out of the new station will be 15,000 volts.

10 Day Break For Schools

Students in Canyon will take time out for spring recess beginning April 2.

WTSU dormitories will close at 5 p.m. that day, to reopen April 12 at 1 p.m. Classes will resume at 8 a.m. April 13.

The public schools will dismiss at the end of the school day on April 2 and begin work again April 12.

L-L Drafts 32; Practicing Now

Little League coaches drafted some 32 boys this week following two days of tryouts.

Boys who played on teams last year will play on the same teams this year, according to LL president Richard Pruett. He said boys who did not make the draft will be assigned to minor league teams by May 17. Also, the eight-year-old league and the nine-year-old league team members will be assigned by May 17. These teams will be posted at Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Pruett noted that the minor league teams, and the 8 and 9 year old leagues will not begin play until school is dismissed in May.

Little League play will begin around the middle of April, with a tentative starting date of April 16.

Little League practice began this week for most of the teams.

Pruett also pointed out umpires are needed for the LL games, and Sturdy Wanamaker will conduct an umpire school later this spring.

Boys drafted and the teams and coaches are listed below.

Astros — Mark Hammons, Edwin Dillehay, Alvin McClain, Chris Wilkinson, Ernest Carter and Randy Cooper. Duane Howard is coach.

Redlegs — Mike McCandless, Stan Cranmer, Terry Mayfield, Matthew Griffin, Kirk Sparling, and Tracy Byrd. Sy Rogers is coach.

Estopare Hits Tennis Stride

Leo is back and David Kent is glad.

Kent, coach of West Texas State tennis team, is grinning with glee about his number one player — Leo Estopare.

An All-American candidate, Leo opened the season on a losing note, but has bounced back and now holds a 10-5 season record. The little St. Louis senior played some of the nation's top collegiate players early in the season and lost several narrow decisions.

Estopare led the Buffaloes to their second tournament team championship Saturday in Denton. He swept past the number one player from North Texas State, the host team, Arkansas and New Mexico State as the Buffaloes recorded three shutouts.

The Buffaloes downed North Texas and New Mexico State, 7-0, to bring their season total of shutouts to seven and stopped Arkansas, 6-1. Mike Bolton, the Buffs' number three player, suffered the only loss by a West Texas player in the tourney and that was only after the Arkansas coach dropped his number one man to the lower position in hopes of picking up a single win.

"Leo is now playing fantastic tennis," Kent said. "He has won five matches in a row and is back to the point he was last year when he was one of the nation's better collegiate players."

The 5-5, 135-pounder captured the national Junior College doubles title while playing at Odessa College prior to transfering to West Texas last year.

Paul Tobin, the Buffs' number two player, has a 13-2 season record. Bolton is 12-3, John Phillips is 12-1, including 12 in a row, Dale Corbin 8-0 and Scott Pool 6-4.

The Buffaloes have changed their match with Amarillo College from Saturday to Thursday, because of the Easter vacation. The Buffs face AC at 2 p.m. Thursday on the Memorial Park Courts.

Friday the Buffs face one of their toughest foes of the season in Texas A&M. West Texas and A&M play at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Lubbock Tennis Center. A&M holds a 4-3 victory over Oral Roberts. The Buffs downed Oral Roberts by that same margin to win the West Texas State Tournament several weeks ago.

Estopare will face A&M's John Ragland in the featured match. Ragland is the defending Southwest Conference doubles champion.

Students' Condition Reported

Three West Texas students who were injured in a car accident early Saturday morning remain in hospitals at mid week with fair to serious conditions.

Jerry Hopkins, 20, from Pampa, is in satisfactory condition in Neblett Hospital. He has a fracture of both collar bones and facial lacerations.

Larry Massey of Plains is in fair condition at Neblett Hospital with lacerations and a back fracture.

Donna Smith of Yeso is reported in serious condition in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. She suffered intensive scalp injuries and back injuries.

Hopkins is credited with near heroic efforts in crawling 100 yards to a house for help after the accident, which occurred near Camp Don Harrington. The threesome lay unattended by the roadside five hours until Hopkins, with both collarbones broken, could reach the home of Ranger Ted Albertson at Camp Don Harrington.

T-Anchor 4-H Attends Clinic

The T-Anchor 4-H Club attended a clinic on horsemanship Saturday at the Bill Cody Arena in Amarillo.

The clinic was sponsored by the Golden Spread Quarter Horse Association.

Speakers were Maryann Willoughby, showmanship at halter; Anita Bivins, western pleasure; Jerry Green, reining; Maryann Willoughby, western horsemanship; Sally Schwartz of WTSU, barrel racing and pole bending; Mrs. R. C. Jones, English pleasure, working hunter, and jumping.

John McNeill of WTSU gave a demonstration on "How to Judge" giving oral reasons for mares and geldings.

WTSU Thinclads In Texas Relays

West Texas State's track coach Bob Kitchens will take a small group of athletes with him this week to the Texas Relays in Austin for the two-day event.

Kitchens is leaving part of his squad at home, due to the nature of the meet. Most of the events are relays and Kitchens doesn't have enough depth among his distance runners to enter some of the longer relays.

The Buffaloes compete the following weekend in the New Mexico State Invitational at Las Cruces.

Eddie Maxwell and Tommy Newsom won the first place trophy at the recent WT Talent Contest. The pair was entered by Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity.

Canyon Firemen Fight Two Fires

Canyon firemen extinguished two fires over the weekend with damage to property ranging from minor to total losses.

A garage with an automobile inside was a total loss Sunday afternoon around 4 o'clock at the H.N. Wheeler residence on Hollywood Road and Canyon Expressway. Slight damage was reported to a house adjacent to the garage.

Saturday morning at 11:10 a.m., moderate damage was reported to a vacant house behind 1902 Eighth Avenue in Canyon.

CHS Golfers Still Lead Competition

Canyon High School golfers still lead the north half of the district after trailing Perryton B team in the second of three rounds of play Saturday.

Randall Burton and Joe Ziegler, both of Canyon, were high medalists with individual scores of 79. But Canyon with 338 was one stroke behind Perryton B team's 337. Perryton A team followed with a 349, and Dumas had 352. Canyon B scored a 380 for the day.

Saturday's results puts Canyon 19 strokes ahead of Perryton B team in the series with 657 to Perryton's 675. Perryton A team has 688 and Dumas has 722.

Canyon will play in the Amarillo Relays and Golf Tournament Friday, and if they are selected as one of the top six teams they will compete Saturday, in Amarillo, and Thursday they will play the final round against the Perryton and Dumas teams. If Canyon does not make the final eliminations in the Amarillo tourney, the final round with the three teams will be held Saturday in Perryton.

The winner of the three rounds for the north half of the district will play the winner of the south half of the district April 17. The south half consists of Muleshoe, Tulia, and Levelland.
